The Desert March and the Ascent of the Nile in General Gordon's Steamers

December 1884 – February 1885 · after the journal of Colonel Sir Charles W. Wilson

Route, camps, wells and dates after Wilson's journal (Blackwood, 1885) and the sketch map published with it, set on a modern survey; positions in the desert are good to a few miles.
Relief: SRTM (NASA) via AWS Terrain Tiles. River: © OpenStreetMap contributors, ODbL. The Nile is drawn in its present course; the Merowe reservoir (2009) is omitted and the Fourth Cataract shown as open river.
